FAMILY CONVERSATIONS

Families, use this to prompt conversations at the table, in the car, and anywhere else your family experiences life together.

- Who in your family knows you really well? How does that person know you so well?
- How do you feel when you think about God knowing you and making you?
- What is something about you or your family that is special or unique?
- Think about your favorite way to spend time together as a family and share a favorite memory. How does it make you feel to know you're a part of God's family and you belong because He made you and loves you?

HANDS ON

Grains of Sand

In this week's part of God's big story, we learned that God made us and knows us. He thinks about us continually and cares about us. To help your kids remember how well God knows them, do this activity using sand or dirt. Gather a small handful of dirt or sand and put it in a bowl. Ask your kids to count the individual grains. Ask for a guess of the number of grains in the bowl. Say: We will probably never know the number of grains of sand in this bowl, because they are so tiny! Psalm 139:17–18 says God's thoughts about us are more numerous than the grains of sand! That means God thinks about you more than all of these thousands of tiny little grains! What do you think God thinks about you? Allow your kids to respond. God knows everything about you because He made you and He loves you. You're special to Him.

INTERACTIVE PRAYER

Sticky Prayers

Do this activity to help your kids remember that God made every part of them and recognize His work in their lives. Take turns putting sticky notes on different parts of your body (head, arms, feet, heart). On each sticky note, write or draw a way God worked through each of you that week. With her feet, one family member may have made a great pass in the soccer game. With his lips, another may have encouraged a friend who was sad and discouraged. As you take turns placing the sticky notes on yourself and each other, say a prayer to thank God for working through you in that way! God had in you in mind before you were born. We can thank Him for the way He knows us and created every part of us!
